

Mission Statement

The mission of Christian Life Resources is to use life and family issues as bridges to convey the love of God and to share the message of salvation through Christ.

Defined:

The mission: The essence and reason for existing.

Christian Life Resources: The agency of Christian Life Resources and its affiliated agencies subordinately (chapters, branches, etc.) as well as collaterally (New Beginnings, CCLF, etc.).

Life [issues]: All issues of life in which decisions are or can be made in which life can either be preserved and protected, or endangered or lost.

Family [issues]: All issues that assist the God-pleasing development, sustaining, and venerating of the family as defined by Scripture.

Bridges: Christian Life Resources uses the issues as bridges or platforms to give cause to provide the even greater service of witnessing to Christ.

Convey: To demonstrate with our actions and to reflect with our words and writings the perfect love of God expressed in the salvation from sin provided in Jesus Christ. Conveying acknowledges our roles as witnesses to the truth and not to be the converters of unbelievers to believers.

The love of God: God's love is represented by the reflections of the Christian faith, showing forgiveness, love, patience and sacrifice to others as we know it from God. This includes acts of charity, speaking with clarity, and acting in humility so as to not detract from the beautiful message of God's love for us in Christ.

Share the message of salvation through Christ: The message is one of universal sinfulness and its eternal consequences resolved by the sacrifice of Jesus Christ. This salvation is thereby received through the miracle of Spirit-worked faith. Therefore, acts of charity and kindness are not the "end" but the means to the "end" of communicating the message of perfect love.
