We Understand

An unplanned pregnancy can be an overwhelming experience. You may feel hurt, afraid, alone, confused, or angry. The good news is you don't have to deal with this all by yourself.

We Can Help

Volunteers who have been trained in pregnancy counseling are ready to listen to you, help you explore your choices, and offer factual information about pregnancy, abortion, adoption, and parenting. We can direct you to the kind of help that you need.

Call to make an appointment to see a caring counselor at a time convenient for you.
